

"THE BUSY CORNER" S. Kann Sons & Co. 5TH ST. AND PENNA. AVE.

Open 8:30 A. M. WASHINGTON D. C. Closed 5:30.

Be Sure You See the New Dress Goods

It is the best display we ever made—greater in variety, better in quality than at any previous time. Prices as always are moderate among the new weaves are.

Covert Cloths
Club Checks
Overplaid Checks
Gabardines
Crepe Gabardines
Silk and wool faille
Crepes
Shepherd Checks
Chiffon Broadcloths
Epingles
Satin Gabardines
Tailor Serges
Poplins
San Toys

All the new colors are seen, also black.
New $1 to $2.50 Dress Goods at a yard 79c

Midland Butter

For years recognized as the best that comes to Alexandria.

Telephone
EDWARD QUINN & SONS
St. Asaph and Oronoco Sts.

W. A. Johnson & Co.

N. E. Cor. Cameron and Royal Sts.

Orders by Mail Promptly Filled
Send for Price List

W. A. JOHNSON & CO.

Whiskies, Wines and Liquors
BEST QUALITY

W. A. JOHNSON & CO.
ALEXANDRIA, VA.

LANSBURY & BRO

Washington, D. C.
Established in 1860
Leaders Then—Leaders Now

We pay particular attention to

All Mail Orders
And see that they are carefully filled by expert shoppers.

A Wonderful Showing
Of everything new for Spring

Dress Goods and Silks

All the latest in the New Spring Shades including sand putty, Belgium Blue, regimental blue, and battle ship grays.
ALL MODERATELY PRICED
Samples cheerfully mailed upon request.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happening in Society.

H. Noel Garner, returned Friday from a business trip to Charlotte, N. C.

George Hepburn, a veteran printer, is critically ill at his home, 403 south Fairfax street, having suffered a third stroke of paralysis.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bendheim left Saturday for New York, to purchase their spring stocks.

Edgar J. Harrison, formerly of Alexandria, and Miss Olive Grigsby, of Washington, were married yesterday afternoon at the rectory of Grace Episcopal Church by the Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector.

D. R. Stansbury, of this city, colonel of staff of Gen. R. A. Stocker, Patriarchs Militant, acted in that capacity at a class initiation held in Baltimore last night.

WOMEN'S PEACE PARTY.

Meeting Yesterday Afternoon in Lee Camp Hall Great Success.

The meeting yesterday afternoon in Lee Camp Hall, of the Alexandria Branch of the Women's Peace Party was a splendid success. The chairman, Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, presided in a most charming manner, and her opening address was eloquent.

Mrs. Jones was followed by Judge Charles E. Nicol, who gave a short talk, after which was a splendidly rendered piano duet by Mrs. Frederick P. Russell and Mrs. Edgar Warfield, Jr. Mrs. George A. Ames of Washington, gave a short but delightful talk and read a beautiful peace poem, written recently by a friend of hers, inspired by Mrs. Ames's enthusiastic work in the Women's Peace Party.

Mr. Wilson L. Gill, president of the American Patriotic League, gave a most interesting and thoroughly appreciated talk about his work in the schools of Cuba, tending to show how the peace movement must include school work and what an important factor the training of the children is towards world peace.

Miss Kate Gordon, of New Orleans, president of the Southern Conference for Equal Suffrage, gave a forceful talk, and the splendid speech of Mrs. Alexander Kent, president of the Woman's Equal Suffrage League, of Washington, and past president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, of the District of Columbia, was greatly enjoyed.

Colonel Charles E. W. Smith, of New York, ended the list of speakers, and truly the Alexandria Branch of the Women's Peace Party was fortunate in having such well known and eloquent speakers, women and men thoroughly conversant with their subjects.

Miss Margaret Pattie Finks added to the pleasure of the afternoon with a beautiful solo.

The meeting ended with a tea served by Mrs. Jones, Mrs. M. W. O'Brien, Mrs. Charles E. Nicol and Miss Stella A. Hobbitt, assisted by Miss Julia Nicol, Miss Mary Louise Nicol, Miss Fanny Nicol, and Miss Esther Green.

The association owes a vote of thanks to the speakers for their splendid assistance, the musicians for the pleasure their talents added to the day, and to Robert E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans for so kindly lending their hall to hold this meeting.

DEATH OF MRS. TRIPLETT.

Mrs. Cecile Monroe Taliaferro, wife of George B. Triplett, of Fairfax county, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at the home of her sister, Miss Gena Taliaferro, in Augusta county. The remains will be brought here tomorrow. Interment private.

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE.

Little Girl Painfully Injured on South Royal Street Yesterday Afternoon.

Some excitement was caused yesterday afternoon on Royal street, near Prince, when an automobile struck a little girl named Adams, knocking her down and cutting her head. She was conveyed to her home, where she received medical attention. The automobile is said to belong in Washington, and was moving slowly at the time of the accident.

TO VISIT HARRISONBURG

Virginia Consistory, No. 2. Will Have Charge of Initiation Ceremonies.

Scottish Rite Masons of the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America will pay a visit to Harrisonburg on Wednesday, March 10, to confer the 32nd degree of Masonry on a class of members of the craft from all sections of Virginia. The ceremonies will be under the auspices of Virginia Consistory No. 2 of Alexandria, and many prominent 32nd-degree Masons of Virginia and Washington D. C. will be present.

Sovereign Grand Commander Moore and sovereign Grand Inspector General Mayer of Richmond of the Southern Jurisdiction have been invited and may attend with other prominent 33rd degree Masons from Washington and elsewhere.

The Scottish Rite includes Masonic degrees from the fourth to the thirty third.

This will be the first time in the Masonic history of Harrisonburg that so distinguished a body of the craft has visited that place and Masons are looking forward to the occasion with much interest. There will be at least 100 Masonic visitors in Harrisonburg for the event.

A representative of Virginia Consistory has been in Harrisonburg arranging with the local committee of Scottish Rite Masons for the visit. An elaborate banquet will be served in Masonic Banquet Hall by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Rockingham Memorial Hospital.

The local committee in charge of the arrangements is composed of B. Bloom, V. R. Slater, Walter C. Switzer and Morris Spiro.

THE LATE R. M. SCOTT.

The funeral of the late R. Marshall Scott took place yesterday morning at his old home "Bush Hill," Fairfax county. The service was read by his former pastor, the Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Theological Seminary, near this city. The interment was in Ivy Hill cemetery, where the rest of his immediate family are laid with the exception of one sister, Mrs. Bernard H. Johnston, who is buried in Washington. When the track of the Richmond and Fredericksburg was changed seven years ago, it passed through the garden of "Bush Hill," near the family cemetery, so all the bodies interred there were removed to "Ivy Hill." "Bush Hill" will still remain in the family connection, as Mr. Leonard Gunnell, a cousin of the late Mr. Scott, intends to make it his home.

The pallbearers at Mr. Scott's funeral were Messrs. Wesley Bitzer, Eldon Reason, William Kitson and his son, Clarence Kitson.

Surprise Theater

Properly Projected Photoplays
1st Show 6:15
2nd 8:20
3rd Show 9:55

TO-NIGHTS PROGRAM.

Famous Players Present

John Barrymore

An American Citizen
4 parts
Great universal serial.
THE MASTER KEY
7th episode 2 parts
Wednesday Matinee
Tillie's Punctured Romance
A 6 part Keystone Comedy that is a scream.

WEDNESDAY
Box Office attraction company presents
St. ELMO
6 parts.

THURSDAY
World Film Corporation offers Barbara Tennant in
The Marked Women
A tale of the Boxer uprising in China.

DEATH OF E. J. SIMPSON

Well-Known Alexandrian Passes Away in Oklahoma City Recently.

The following is taken from the Daily Oklahoman of a recent date: "Major E. J. Simpson, whose death in Oklahoma City, was 64 years old. The deceased was born in Alexandria, Va., in 1850, and came to Oklahoma in 1888, one year before the territory was opened to homestead settlement. He served as superintendent of the Cheyenne and Arapaho Indian agency at Darlington before Oklahoma had found a place on the territorial map, and was a member of the territorial legislature, representing Canadian county. Major Simpson was at one time county attorney of Canadian county, and was a journalist for a number of years, having been editor of the El Reno Supper Bell, the El Reno Globe and the El Reno Democrat. As editor, public official and practicing attorney his sphere of acquaintance was extensive. Locating in Oklahoma City four years ago, Major Simpson had been the first reader of the Christian Science Church of this city. Inside and outside of the congregation Major Simpson was noted for his gentle nature, for his courtesy and for his devotion to mankind. Among all classes his kindness was prevalent. Only three months ago Major Simpson lost his wife, Will Simpson, a son, and Mrs. J. T. McClelland, a daughter, both of Oklahoma City, and one grandson, are the survivors of Major Simpson."

The deceased is well remembered by old Alexandrians. He was a son of the late Henry L. Simpson, who for many years conducted the shoe business on north Royal street. He was a member of a family of thirteen, all of whom are now dead.

SANTA MARTA UNDER TOW.

Coast Guard Cutter is Taking the Steamer to New York.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 23.—After being buffeted for four days in a gale, the steamer Santa Marta, which lost her rudder near Cape Hatteras Friday morning, is en route to New York in tow of the coast guard cutter Onondaga and the wrecking tug Rescue. The Onondaga, first to reach the disabled vessel, got a line to her early this morning.

MEET ENCOURAGEMENT.

Over Sixty Dollars Realized From Sale of "Cherries" Yesterday.

The play ground committee of the Parents-Teachers' Association desire to express their thanks to the community for the generous response made yesterday to their efforts to raise the necessary sum towards conducting the play grounds at the Washington School this year. The movement came to its birth last summer when the grounds were prepared on the premises of the old Lancasterian School, founded and sustained by George Washington in colonial days. The young people engaged in disposing of the "cherries" turned in over sixty dollars. While the committee appreciates the liberality extended those who disposed of the "cherries," they desire to express especial thanks to the Chamber of Commerce for the use of their rooms as a distributing point, also to the Barrett Press for favors. The girls who sold the boutenniers were assisted by Boy Scouts and some school boys. The "cherries" were in charge of the following: Miss Sophia Tackett, Mary Glenn Uhler, Eliza Douglass, Nellie Uhler, Katherine Waller, Julia Duncan, Fannie Nicols, Lucy Webb, Lucy Uhler, Marian Negley, Louise Howard, Lillian Allison, Barbara Campbell, Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater, Mrs. Taylor Burke, Misses Hammersley, McCalister, and Margaret Duke.

ALEXANDRIAN TAKES VEIL.

Miss Eugenia Gauman Enters Convent at Frederick, Md.

Frederick, Md., Feb. 23.—Miss Eugenia Gauman, of Alexandria, Va., took final vows yesterday in the convent chapel. Mgr. C. F. Thomas, of Baltimore, assisted by the Rev. William J. Kane, pastor of St. John's Church, officiated. Mass was sung by the convent choir. She assumed the name of sister Mary Loretta. She is the daughter of John Gauman, and the ceremony was witnessed by her parents and sister. She entered the convent more than one year ago.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP

10th-11th. F & G Streets
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Anniversary Specials on 4th Floor

Duplex and oil opaque window shades, 45c each. Values to $1.25.
Cretonne chair cushions, $1.50 and $2.00 quality, $1.00 each.
Fine imported Cretonnes, 28c yard. Regularly 50c and 60c.
Jim and Jack, the merry acrobat Toy, special prices, 25c each.
24 inch light weight mattings suit cases, special price $1.95 each.
Full size canvas covered wardrobe trunks, special $16.75 each.
$2.00 Quality colonial mirrors, antique gilt frames, $1.00 each.

BARGAINS

TWO MODERN HOMES

One in the city 2 blocks north of King St, in fine surrounding and one in suburbs. Both have 7 rooms and tiled bath room, Hot Water Heat, Gas, and Electric lights. Open on all sides.

Owners must sell—Your opportunity

SLAYMAKER - SCHNEIDER

CORPORATION
OFFICE OF THE ROSEMONT MAN

Special Offer

For Sale

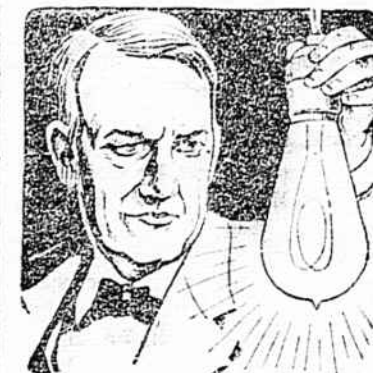

Brick house N. St. Asaph Street between Cameron and Queen, 8 rooms and bath, sewer connections, front and side yard.

This property is in excellent condition which may be proved by inspection.

Price and Terms upon application

GRAHAM & GORDEN

Real Estate and Insurance
529 King Street,

THE LIGHTING QUESTION

these days has only one satisfactory answer. It is the electric light. All other means of illumination pale before it. You know that. But perhaps the matter of expense has kept you from enjoying the one perfect light. Let us prove how recent inventions have reduced the cost to well within your means.

The Alexandria County Lighting Company

The Richmond Music Shop

Over the
RICHMOND THEATRE
Dealers in
NEW EDISON DIAMOND DISC
Phonographs and Records
Demonstrations every Afternoon and Evening.
Hall with Edison Music for Dancing, $10.00
Dancing Lessons, Miss Katherine C. Waller, Mgr.

LAURENCE STABLER

321 Prince Street
Insurance and Real Estate
Loans under deeds of trust negotiated, rents collected and promptly accounted for

Invest Your Idle Money in First Trust Real Estate Loans on Alexandria City Property at 6 per cent Interest, payable Semi-Annually
John D. Normoyle

Attention:
Only one completed Apartment
The Wagar
NOW FOR RENT
The management desire to state that all of the complete apartments at "THE WAGAR" have been rented except one, and when this is rented reservations can be made for the remaining three apartments which will be completed in April 1915
SEE
MONROE & MARBURY
307 King St. Bell Phone 444